

Message from the President

TFAM is in its second year with a membership of close to 50 fibre artists. Yahoo! We are strong! Goodness knows our executive is strong; they are a bunch of go-getters. Whew! I have a hard time keeping up to them.

Cathy Ugrin is the energizer bunny, always finding new locations for our exhibits. Her latest kudo is to have the Manitoba Moments exhibit be promoted through the Manitoba Arts Network for 2020-21. Through MAN the show will be available to tour to all galleries throughout the province. We hope that MB Moments will be chosen to tour to some of the more remote locations of the province. Thank you, Cathie, for all your hard work with promoting this exhibit.

Theresa Shaw is always looking for wonderful workshop and event ideas. See a list in this newsletter. A couple of exciting ventures involve a trip to and workshop connected to the Grand Nationals 2019 Fibre Art and Quilt Exhibition to be held in Portage la Prairie this July 6 to August 10. WOW - A National fibre art exhibit in Manitoba! We all will have to attend. Hey, let's not just attend, but we should exhibit too. Don't forget to enter the exhibit – Yes You CAN. Entry submission deadline is April 13, 2019. Go to grandnationalquiltshow.ca to find the details.

Susan Selby, our secretary, has been busy this winter with TFAM and with her own exhibiting and teaching. Her exhibit was on display in Portage la Prairie in February. Her workshop, Impressionist's Garden, was held March 30 at the Portage and District Arts Centre.

TFAM now has two Yvones on the Executive. Yvonne Carlson is our newsletter, membership, website and general

“do everything that is not listed anywhere else” person. What would we do without her?! Yvonne Rempel is our newest executive member; she is in charge of the Facebook and Instagram posts, purchasing cooperative and has a wealth of knowledge that TFAM hopes to capitalize on.

As well as TFAM executive, we have some important TFAM volunteers. Marj Moore is heading up the Fibre Art Show to be held at the Manitoba Fibre Festival this fall. She is currently looking for volunteers to help on the committee. If you are interested, send an email to TFAM. The committee will be letting us know more about the theme of this year's exhibit once the information is available. Also, at Sheena's Needle Gallery, TFAM now has an exhibit of fibre art. Thanks to Teresa Rempel and Anita Shackelford for volunteering to collect and set up this art work. The first exhibit is on the wall and looks great! I hope you will support their efforts and plan to submit some of your artwork for display or sale in this venue.

Keep creating, spring will be here soon!

Steps for Entering a TFAM Exhibit

By Susan Selby

1. Intent to Enter

The first step in entering a TFAM exhibit is to fill in the Intent to Enter form, which is your commitment to providing a piece of art for the show. The TFAM show organizer needs to know how many pieces will be in any exhibit ahead of time to book galleries and check out exhibition opportunities. There is a lot of work that goes on long before the artist even creates the artwork!

At this point you pay a fee. Your money is needed to pay the expenses associated with running the show: TFAM makes the hanging rods, produces signs and labels, purchases special hooks and bins, and moves the show from place to place. You pay in advance to secure your commitment. Sorry, you do not get your money back if you do not get your

Nervous or confused about entering an exhibit? Check out this step-by-step article about entering an exhibit. Whether this is your first exhibit or your 10th, it's important to understand the process.

entry done. So, make a serious commitment before filling in an Intent to Enter form.

2. Making Your Art

Now is your time to create! The show organizers have given you some parameters to work with. A theme has been chosen to provide some cohesion to the show, so think about the theme and create something relating to it. (Please follow the size guidelines, as your work will not be accepted if it is the wrong size.)

You may also be given very specific directions for making your hanging sleeve. Remember, the show organizers make the hanging rods that need to fit into the sleeve and hang level. (When you have an opportunity to help hang a show you will realize how important it is that all the rods and hanging sleeves are the same.)

Unfortunately, TFAM cannot give you an extension. The call for entry and entry deadline are chosen to give you ample time to create. The show organizers need to receive all the work on time so they can organize it and get it to the first venue. This can be very time consuming! So please get your artwork in on time.

TFAM might ask for a drawstring bag with your name and artwork title on it. This is to protect and keep your art clean. It also helps with transporting, putting up and taking down a show.

3. Entry Form

The Entry Form needs to be filled in after you have had time to create. It is at this time that TFAM needs some information about you and your work.

Please notice that the Entry Form and the Intent to Enter are different!

With the Entry Form, you need to provide the title and a SHORT artist statement for each art piece you are entering. This will go on a SMALL tag clipped to or beside your art. This is specific to each artwork and your chance to connect with a viewer to explain the feeling you are hoping to convey.

TFAM may want an Artist's Biography. This is written in the third person even though you write it yourself. Keep it short please: every second quilt artist learned to sew from her grandmother, so you

*“Every artist was first an amateur”
~Ralph Waldo Emerson*

Textile and Fibre Artists of Manitoba News

can leave that out. Tell us something that relates your life to your art.

TFAM may also want an Artist's Statement. This is a generalized view of the artwork that you are entering in this exhibit. You get to tell the viewer where your inspiration came from, what your art means to you and why you liked doing this fibre art piece. You get to be personal here and call yourself 'I'. (In other words, it is written in first person).

4. Photos

Some galleries want photos of the art before they will accept an exhibit and TFAM will use your photos for promotional material too. The best photos will be used for posters and postcards to advertise the show. There are on-line tutorials to help you take your best shots. Please crop your photos so only your artwork is in view. (That way no one will see how untidy your studio is!)

So that is it! Four steps and you will have a piece of artwork that you will be proud to display! TFAM exhibits are a wonderful way to display your artwork and help promote fibre art in Manitoba. Thanks for considering entering a TFAM exhibit.

Special Events

"At the Winnipeg Art Gallery, every second year, the galleries blossom with a feast for the senses. Experience Art in Bloom's lush exhibit of floral designs and the art that inspires them."

Thursday, April 11 – Sunday, April 14

The Winnipeg Art Gallery is sponsoring 'Art in Bloom' where floral artists create an arrangement in response to a work of art in the WAG collection. This year the event has been opened to other art forms and TFAM will be part of it!

A dedicated group has created an arrangement of textile 'flowers' inspired by a Tony Scherman painting of Rosa Parks. The Artist Statement sums up our vision:

Textile and Fibre Artists of Manitoba News

"Captured within the sombre sepia tones and vintage delicacy of this unique fibre-based arrangement, Rosa Parks' spirit is alive and unequivocal. Textural tones and multi-layered materials are used to incorporate, complement and provide contrast, representing the many facets of Rosa's life. The fibres used, including new and vintage silk, linen, cotton and lace, embody her characteristic determination, defiance, passion and gentleness. The use of fabrics also evokes her life as a seamstress and the stylized flowers represent the integrity and strength of character that Scherman's painting evokes. TFAM's arrangement for Rosa Parks is everlasting, as is the struggle to ensure that human beings are treated equally everywhere."

Curious? The event will be open April 12, 11 am – 9 pm, April 13 – 14, 11 am – 5 pm with regular gallery admission. Free for WAG members.

Exhibit Opportunity for TFAM Artists

Stop in at Sheena's Needle Arts Gallery at 953 St Mary's Road and check out the fibre art created by TFAM members. Sheena's had an empty wall, we have the art! Barb Best, new owner of Sheena's, offered the space for the display of our work for sale or just for show. If you have any fibre art pieces you would like to display or if you want to create a piece please look for the form "New Exhibit at Sheena's Needle Gallery" on the TFAM website. The display will be changed regularly and we are looking for new pieces to exhibit! If you have any questions, contact Teresa at tprempe@gmail.com or Anita at ajshackleford@gmail.com or email Yvonne Carlson at tfamartist@gmail.com

Introducing the Members

Rosemarie Péloquin

Rosemarie Péloquin is a visual artist living in Saint-Pierre-Jolys, MB who traded in her jobs and her loom for a tiny toolbox of needles that fits in her pocket. She spends most of her time making faces. With her barbed wands she sculpts portraits that represent character rather than physical likeness. She uses the malleability and texture of wool to capture fragile moments that tug at our remembrances.

"I am constantly surprised by what comes from the collaboration of hand, barbed needle and fibre. There is a powerful connection that happens when I sink my fingers in the soft wool, when I hear the satisfying crunch as the needle rhythmically stabs and connects with the fibres, and when I see the personality emerging as I push and pull and tease the spirits within. In my work, I try to honour the traditions that came before me, the life that gave me this sensual material, and the learning that I have acquired, by presenting a new image of the fibre and giving it power that was not readily apparent."

Textile and Fibre Artists of Manitoba News

Rosemarie's work emerges from a life well lived and a background in design, teaching, and coaching. It is fueled by a passion for discovering connections and the belief that life's richness is found in the ordinary and the unexpected.

Tania Deleva

Tania is a knitter and has knitted scarves, shawls, socks, hats, etc.

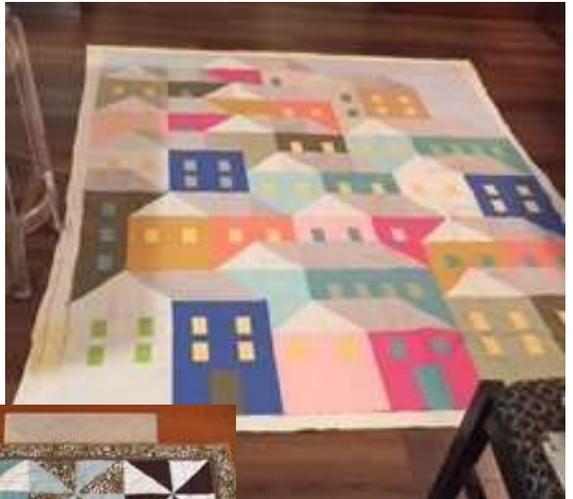

She took some sewing classes during the last two years of high school and sewed a lot of her own clothes at that time. In the last few years Tania has made project bags for knitting and has noticed that her fabric stash is now competing with her yarn stash, and she has a lot of yarn.

Two years ago, she did a small landscape "quilt" from a photo her daughter took and really enjoyed the process.

Eleanor Shewchuk

Eleanor is an 'almost' retired professional interior designer and has sewn forever. Both her mother and grandmother were creative, sewing, crocheting, knitting and doing crewel work. Colour and texture have always interested her and she always wanted to quilt when retired. Another TFAM member taught her traditional quilting. But as she made several quilts, came to the realization that she wanted to make untraditional quilts. She has been looking for some kindred spirits on line and locally for some time. Eleanor has now found TFAM and is so pleased and excited to join the group.

Workshops

Upcoming TFAM Workshops:

Hand Embroidery Basics - Learn the basics of hand embroidery. Instructor, Yvonne Carlson, will teach the basic stitches as well as the fundamentals of thread, needles and fabric in hand embroidery. Whether you want to do hand embroidery or use the stitches to embellish your fibre art, it is always good to start with the basics.

Are you a Fibre Art Teacher?

Education and Learning

One of the cornerstones of TFAM is Education and Learning. We have many fantastic fibre artists within our membership who also teach classes or workshops. We have been approached for a list of teachers and would like to add a list of classes to the TFAM website. So, if you have a fibre art technique you are willing to teach to other enthusiasts, or if you are looking for a fibre art instructor, this is the place to add and find information. Please list only Fibre Art or related classes (quilting, felting, weaving and knitting are all acceptable). Open to all TFAM members.

To have your classes listed, go to the website and fill in the form.

TFAM Exhibits

'Manitoba Moments'

The Exhibit continues to travel to various locations and will continue from now to 2020. See the full list in TFAM Current Exhibits on the last page of this newsletter. Manitoba Moments has been at 9 different venues to date and is currently hanging in Caked with Love on Corydon Ave, Winnipeg. A great place to visit for a coffee and a cupcake.

Tributes

A big TFAM Tribute and thank you goes to members Teresa Rempel and Anita Shackleford for planning, organizing and mounting the latest exhibit at Sheena's Needle Gallery, 953 St Mary's Rd, Winnipeg. Have you been to see it yet?

Tributes also go to the seven Manitoba Moments artists who have sold eight art pieces from our current exhibit. Congratulations! Also; to Rita Shields who sold her (first) ICE exhibit entry. Yes, that's right, even before the exhibit opens officially.

Tributes to anyone who entered the NJS with Quilt Canada. It's intimidating to just enter and getting accepted is a bonus. Congrats to Elaine Filyk who had a piece accepted to the 2019 show which will be in Ottawa this June.

SAQA 2020 in Toronto

The SAQA (Studio Art Quilt Associates) 2020 Conference is in Toronto March 19 to 22, 2020. This is a fabulous opportunity for Canadian Fibre Artists.

Firstly, it is a 'local' conference which makes it much more reasonable in terms of travel for us to attend.

Secondly, it is organized and run by fellow Canadian fibre artists and gives us a chance to be part of and support our fellow SAQA Canadian members.

Thirdly, and most importantly, there is a SAQA juried exhibition which will be part of the conference and tour throughout Canada for three years. It is open to Canadian SAQA members only, which gives us a wonderful opportunity to enter a SAQA exhibit.

The exhibit is titled 'Colour with a 'U'' and the Call for Entry is posted on the SAQA website. Please consider entering – you have almost a year to create for it.

It will be worth joining just to be able to attend the conference and enter 'Colour with a 'U''.
